

What does a VOLUNTEER do, anyway?

Newark Now's Volunteer Corps plays a vital role in the campaign to make every Newark neighborhood safe and livable.

Volunteer Corps workers offer their time (as they are available) to help Newark communities in many ways:

- Clean up litter
- Advertise community events (canvassing)
- Help carry out community events
- Organize block parties and other neighborhood activities
- Assist at children's events
- Help with youth sports leagues

... and much more!

Newark Now is an independent, non-profit organization. We are dedicated to empowering Newark residents with the tools needed to transform their communities through neighborhood-based organizations and tenant associations. We offer such groups services as strategic planning, creative problem-solving, neighborhood research, community outreach, and leadership development.

Newark Now was founded in 2002 by Newark mayoral candidate Cory Booker, a nationally recognized figure in the urban reform movement.
